

Collection of Information

We collect personally identifiable information, like names, postal addresses, email addresses, etc., when voluntarily submitted by you through the application process, event registrations, program participation forms, and any other form required for Mount Paran Christian School to provide services to you or your student. The information you provide is used to:

- Process and support your specific request for admission and enrollment;
- Process and support student registration for all accepted new students and re-enrolling students;
- Process and support student enrollment status as appropriate, including, but not limited to, billing, student records, and student medical information necessary to support enrollment and participation at Mount Paran Christian School;
- Process and support student involvement in Mount Paran Christian School instructional programs, extra-curricular programs, co-curricular programs, and activities;
- Inform you of events, activities, and volunteer opportunities in which you may wish to participate;
- Include your contact information in a school directory and in email distribution lists for parent-led activities and communications, unless you specifically withhold your permission in writing, signed and dated to the admission office each school year;
- Send publications, collateral materials, updates, and information;
- Solicit financial support for the school;
- Communicate with you on an individual or collective basis;
- Assist students with preparation for college;
- Provide third parties student information as necessary and appropriate for the safety and health of the student, such as in the lunch program, other school programs, and school trips; and
- Provide third parties student information as requested by you, such as on transcript request forms.

Revision #1

Created 24 August 2026 14:58:49 by Admin

Updated 24 August 2026 14:59:25 by Admin